Word

L: A Reading from Genesis.

Then the Lord God said, "It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper as his partner." So out of the ground the Lord God formed every animal of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name. The man gave names to all cattle, and to the birds of the air, and to every animal of the field; but for the man there was not found a helper as his partner. So the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; then he took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. And the rib that the Lord God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man. Then the man said, "This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called Woman, for out of Man this one was taken." Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and they become one flesh. (Genesis 2:18-24)

C: Thanks be to God.

L: A Reading from Hebrews.

Long ago God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom he also created the worlds. He is the reflection of God's glory and the exact imprint of God's very being, and he sustains all things by his powerful word. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs... Now God did not subject the coming world, about which we are speaking, to angels. But someone has testified somewhere, "What are human beings that you are mindful of them, or mortals, that you care for them? You have made them for a little while lower than the angels; you have crowned them with glory and honor, subjecting all things under their feet." Now in subjecting all things to them, God left nothing outside their control. As it is, we do not yet see everything in subjection to them, but we do see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone. It was fitting that God, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through sufferings. For the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one Father. For this reason Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters, saying, "I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters, in the midst of the congregation I will praise you." (Hebrews 1:1-4; 2:5-12)

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark.

C: *Glory to you, O Lord.

Some Pharisees came, and to test him they asked, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?" He answered them, "What did Moses command you?" They said, "Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her." But Jesus said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart he wrote this commandment for you. But from the beginning of creation, 'God made them male and female.' For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.' So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate." Then in the house the disciples asked him again about this matter. He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery." People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, "Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it." And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them. (Mark 10:2-16)

Break now the bread of Christ's sacrifice; giving thanks, hungry ones, gather round.
Eat all of you, and be satisfied; in Christ's presence the loaves will abound.

C: Bread of life...

Seek not the food that will pass away; set your hearts on the food that endures.
Come, learn the true and living way, that the fullness of life may be yours.

C: Bread of life...

Love as the one who, in love for you, gave himself for the life of the world.
Come to the one who is food for you, that your hunger and thirst be no more.

C: Bread of life...

Dwell in the one who now dwells in you; make your home in the life-giving Word.
Know only Christ, Holy One of God, and believe in the truth you have heard.

AN INVITATION

Believing that the Christ who is truly present in this Holy Sacrament is Lord of His Church and this Supper, and this same Lord Christ calls all believers to “take and eat . . . ,” WE INVITE THE BAPTIZED OF ALL FAITH TRADITIONS who seek to commune with the crucified and risen Lord to participate in this Holy meal.

DIRECTIONS FOR CONTINUOUS COMMUNION

Please fill out a Communion Record Card and give it to the Usher as you are invited to come forward. Stand to receive the Elements. Adults not receiving communion, as well as young children who have not yet celebrated their first Communion, are encouraged to come forward to receive a blessing. To commune: After you have received the bread from the Pastor on your side of the church, please walk to the person holding the tray. When the tray of communion glasses is presented to you, select wine (amber colored) or grape juice (purple colored) according to your personal preference. Should you have difficulty removing the communion glass from the tray indicate to the Server your preference and it will be presented.

WE WELCOME THOSE who are visitors with us today. We wish to share with you every element of our congregation's life. Please sign a Visitor's Card and give it to an usher. If you are interested in having the Pastor call or in becoming a member of Advent, please check the appropriate box.

THE ALTAR FLOWERS ARE PRESENTED to the Glory of God and in loving memory of my husband, Larry, and our parents by Shirley Marino.

THANK YOU to everyone who sent a birthday card to Stan. He really enjoyed the cards; they were much appreciated - Jeanette Zeiders.

LUNCH BUNCH IS CANCELED TODAY.

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF CONGREGATIONAL VOTE for a new pastor will be held following the 10:00 service on October 21 (Note there is only one service this day where the candidate for pastor will preach.) A "Meet the Candidate" evening is scheduled for Saturday, October 20, from 6:00 to 9:00 pm. (Please bring a dessert to share—see sign-up sheet later in bulletin). Information packets on the candidate (one per household) are available in the vestibules. PLEASE DO NOT DISCUSS THE CANDIDATE outside of the Advent membership.

KIDS' CONNECTION STARTS TODAY - If you liked Library Club, you are going to love the new and improved reboot: Kids' Connection Club. It will be the first Sunday of the month at both the 8:30 and 11:00 service. Kids' Connection Club allows children of various ages to interact and have fun. Older children interact and mentor younger children actively demonstrating the precepts of Christianity. We want to develop their character, their faith and their compassion. October's theme is the color Red for reformation. The kids will get to build marshmallow cathedrals, learn how to make gummy worms dance, demonstrate a yoga pose or two, and much much more.

We will be providing an opportunity to connect with our community and those in need. Coming into Kid's Connection Club (KCC) we would like to get the children in the habit of bringing donations to help others. We will accept them at the door in the donation box. Monthly themes will be announced. Jill Fetter and Lori Loken

ANTIETAM BUS TRIP - SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13 - We will leave Advent at 9:00 a.m. to travel to Antietam Battlefield in Sharpsburg, Maryland. Greg Kinghorn will be our school bus driver and Pastor Dan our tour guide sharing stories about his great grandfather, Pvt. Isaac Bobst, who fought at Antietam, as well as other details about the bloodiest day of the Civil War. Cost is $25.00 per person which covers the bus and tour. Supper on the way home at Buon Appetito will be on your own. Registration forms and more information can be found in the October Newsletter and on the Kiosk in the Gathering Space. Deadline to register is today, Sunday, October 7.

HARVEST HOME IS COMING UP ON OCTOBER 14 and Advent will be collecting canned goods and pantry items to be donated to the Bell Family Shelter. Please consider a gift of family-sized canned or packaged goods. Unfortunately, the shelter cannot accept glass containers or bulk items. You may bring your donation to church by October 14. Items may be placed in the boxes around the church labeled for Harvest Home. Items from Sunday School students will be collected from their classrooms. Financial contributions are also welcome. Please make your check payable to Advent Lutheran Church and mark Harvest Home in the memo line. Thank you in advance for sharing your gifts with others who are in need in our community! We are also looking for a few people that are able to assist in delivery to Bell Shelter (within 2 miles of Advent) after the 11:00 service on October 14.

PLEASE CONSIDER HELPING LOCAL FAMILIES IN NEED! While we are thinking about Harvest Home coming up, please consider this worthwhile endeavor as well. Advent has been supporting the "Panther Pantry", Central York School District's food bank. The Panther Pantry benefits all Central York School District families who have been identified as being in need. Identified families can come to the food bank at designated times to receive food and other necessities. If students have a desperate need and families are unable to come to the Panther Pantry, items can be sent home with students in backpacks. At this time items that are in greatest need to restock the pantry are: non-perishable individual microwaveable food items (prepackaged macaroni & cheese containers for example) and deodorant. All non-perishable food items are always accepted and appreciated. A plastic bin, labeled PANTHER PANTRY DONATIONS, is located near the library area for your donations. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Julie Breighner at 717.887.4493.

LEISURE GROUP – We're trying something new starting with our October 16 meeting. Instead of a covered-dish luncheon, we will provide a cooked meal at noon. Therefore, no one needs to bring anything with them as all food will be served to them. The menu includes: Chicken Breast with Cornbread; Apple Dressing; Mixed Vegetables; Salad; Rolls and Sweet Breads; Sheet Cake and Fruit Pies. There will be a cost of $5.00/each, paid when you arrive. So, get ready to laugh and have a good time!

EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH DISASTER RELIEF – Lutheran Disaster Response brings God’s hope, healing and renewal to people whose lives have been disrupted by disasters in the United States and around the world. For more information about how to give online, please visit www.elca.org or see the insert in today’s bulletin.

WORSHIP AND YOUNG CHILDREN – Children grow in faith and learning by seeing, hearing, and participating in worship. Therefore, it is recommended that parents take their children with them and involve them in worship as soon as possible. To support this growth and learning, soft-covered books, worship bags of quiet activities, and children’s bulletins are available by seeing one of the ushers.

For families whose children may become restless, you may take them to the Gathering Area and still be able to view a live stream of the service.

Families are reminded to come back into the Sanctuary to receive Holy Communion and blessings for the children. As needed, childcare for youngsters from birth through three years old is available in our Church nursery on Sundays from 8:15 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. for parents who participate in Worship. This nursery is staffed by trained personnel and is located upstairs in the former library location. See an usher for directions.

Treat Others as You Want to be Treated

MEET AND GREET

Are you coming to the Meet and Greet on Saturday the 21st? Well if you are, would you please consider baking/purchasing something for the reception? We are looking for strictly finger desserts. NO cake or pies, we do not want to make this complicated. Cookies, brownies, quick breads and pastries are perfect for this reception. Just drop off your treat in the church kitchen, either on Friday morning when the church is open or on Saturday just before the Meet and Greet.

Thanks for helping!
