*Oh, say can you see by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars thru the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?*

Word

L: A Reading from First Kings.

Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, "Go now to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and live there; for I have commanded a widow there to feed you." So he set out and went to Zarephath. When he came to the gate of the town, a widow was there gathering sticks; he called to her and said, "Bring me a little water in a vessel, so that I may drink." As she was going to bring it, he called to her and said, "Bring me a morsel of bread in your hand." But she said, "As the Lord your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of meal in a jar, and a little oil in a jug; I am now gathering a couple of sticks, so that I may go home and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it, and die." Elijah said to her, "Do not be afraid; go and do as you have said; but first make me a little cake of it and bring it to me, and afterwards make something for yourself and your son. For thus says the Lord the God of Israel: The jar of meal will not be emptied and the jug of oil will not fail until the day that the Lord sends rain on the earth." She went and did as Elijah said, so that she as well as he and her household ate for many days. The jar of meal was not emptied, neither did the jug of oil fail, according to the word of the Lord that he spoke by Elijah.

(1 Kings 17:8-16)

L: The Word of the Lord.

C: *Thanks be to God.

Psalm 146 (Responsive Reading)

L: Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord, O my soul!

C: *I will praise the Lord as long as I live; I will sing praises to my God all my life long.

L: Do not put your trust in princes, in mortals, in whom there is no help.

C: *When their breath departs, they return to the earth; on that very day their plans perish.

L: Happy are those whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the Lord their God, who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them;

C: *who keeps faith forever; who executes justice for the oppressed; who gives food to the hungry.

L: The Lord sets the prisoners free; the Lord opens the eyes of the blind.

C: *The Lord lifts up those who are bowed down; the Lord loves the righteous.

L: The Lord watches over the strangers; he upholds the orphan and the widow,

C: *but the way of the wicked he brings to ruin.

L: The Lord will reign forever, your God, O Zion, for all generations.

C: *Praise the Lord!

L: A Reading from Hebrews.

For Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own; for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him. (Hebrews 9:24-28)

L: The Word of the Lord.

C: *Thanks be to God.

C: *Alleluia, Lord to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. Alleluia, Alleluia.

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark.

C: *Glory to you, O Lord.

As he taught, he said, "Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets! They devour widows' houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation." He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on." (Mark 12:38-44)

P: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: *Praise to you, O Christ.

Sermon

Pastor Dan Biles

* Hymn of the Day, #756

"Eternal Father, Strong to Save"

* A Litany for Those In Service of the Nation

P: Almighty God, Creator of the Universe, you place into the hearts of all humanity the love of homeland and nation. This day we raise before you with Thanksgiving the names and memories of all who have shown their love of country through service given to its defense.

C: *Accept our Thanksgiving, Lord.

P: We pray for all who devote themselves to the protection and defense of this land and country. We pray for those who serve the nation on native soil, and for those who serve at great distance from home. We ask, O Lord, that you would be a haven of support to their families. Be with all who keep watch by land, sea or air, and shield them from danger and harm.

C: Bless us with your support, good Lord.

P: We are the living beneficiaries of the sacrifices of those who have the protection of others even before their own lives and welfare. For many, theirs was an ultimate sacrifice, whose impact is beyond words to measure. We pray, O Lord, that you will be the Holy Comforter to the families of all who have died in the nation's defense and on the behalf of others.

C: Comfort us, good Lord.

P: As our eyes scan the list of those who served, let us ponder and pause...
... to remember those who died while serving, and those who miss them still;
... to be supportive of all who sustained injury and those whose wounds still impair;
... to give thanks for those whose tour of duty ended without injury or death, and the joy of families reunited;
... and, to pray for those actively serving in posts and ports near and far, that they might return home in safety.

C: Keep us steadfast in remembering the sacrifice they made, O Lord, Amen.

P: Almighty and everlasting God, you are the comfort of those who mourn and the strength of those who suffer. Hear our prayers for those whom we name today in need of your help, especially.... Amen.

C: *Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

P: Therefore, gracious Father, with this bread and cup we remember the life our Lord offered for us .... we await His coming in power to share with us the great and promised feast.

C: *Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.
